Tony Backhouse is a singer, composer, vocal arranger and teacher - now resident in New Zealand. He has been running vocal workshops in New Zealand and Australia since 1988 and has made several trips to the USA to extend his knowledge and deepen his experience of African-American Gospel traditions. He regularly leads Gospel singing tours to the States. Tony has been visiting WA since the early nineties and has inspired a community of people here who sing many of the songs he's introduced. He's a remarkably generous and open-hearted teacher who manages to ignite others with his passion and soulfulness and creates a safe space to experiment, improvise, find your voice and connect with other people.
